

WHY CHOOSE THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY AT THE CHINESE CULTURE UNIVERSITY?

You will have options from our four major course clusters:

Freedom to choose your interest both the foundational (research) and applied history courses.

1 Chinese History

2 World History
(including history of specific nations)

3 Taiwanese History

4 Art and Applied History

The educational goals of the Department of History are as follows:

1. To acquire professional historical knowledge to cultivate expertise in the field of history.
2. To master historical methods and learn the way of historical writing.
3. To foster the ability to apply historical knowledge and expand the scope of expertise in history.
4. To cultivate a strong foundation in humanities and social awareness, while possessing a global perspective.

Professional Required Courses:

Anchor and Slash Learning Pattern:

General Education, Interdisciplinary Credit Program, Minor/Double Major (selective study)

Four Major Professional Clusters:

Chinese History, World History, Taiwanese History, Art and Applied History

Future Prospects:

Academic Research, Local Cultural and Historical Work, Educational jobs in high school system, Cultural and Creative Industries, Public Service Positions, Various and Flexible Works.

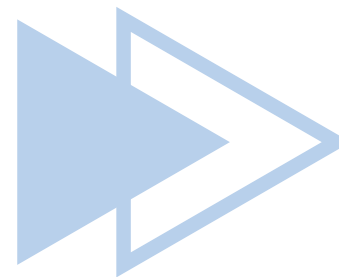

Historiography +N = Infinite Possibilities

Encouraging anchor-style diverse interdisciplinary learning, making full use of the advantages of various departments at Chinese Culture University.

The Applied History Center

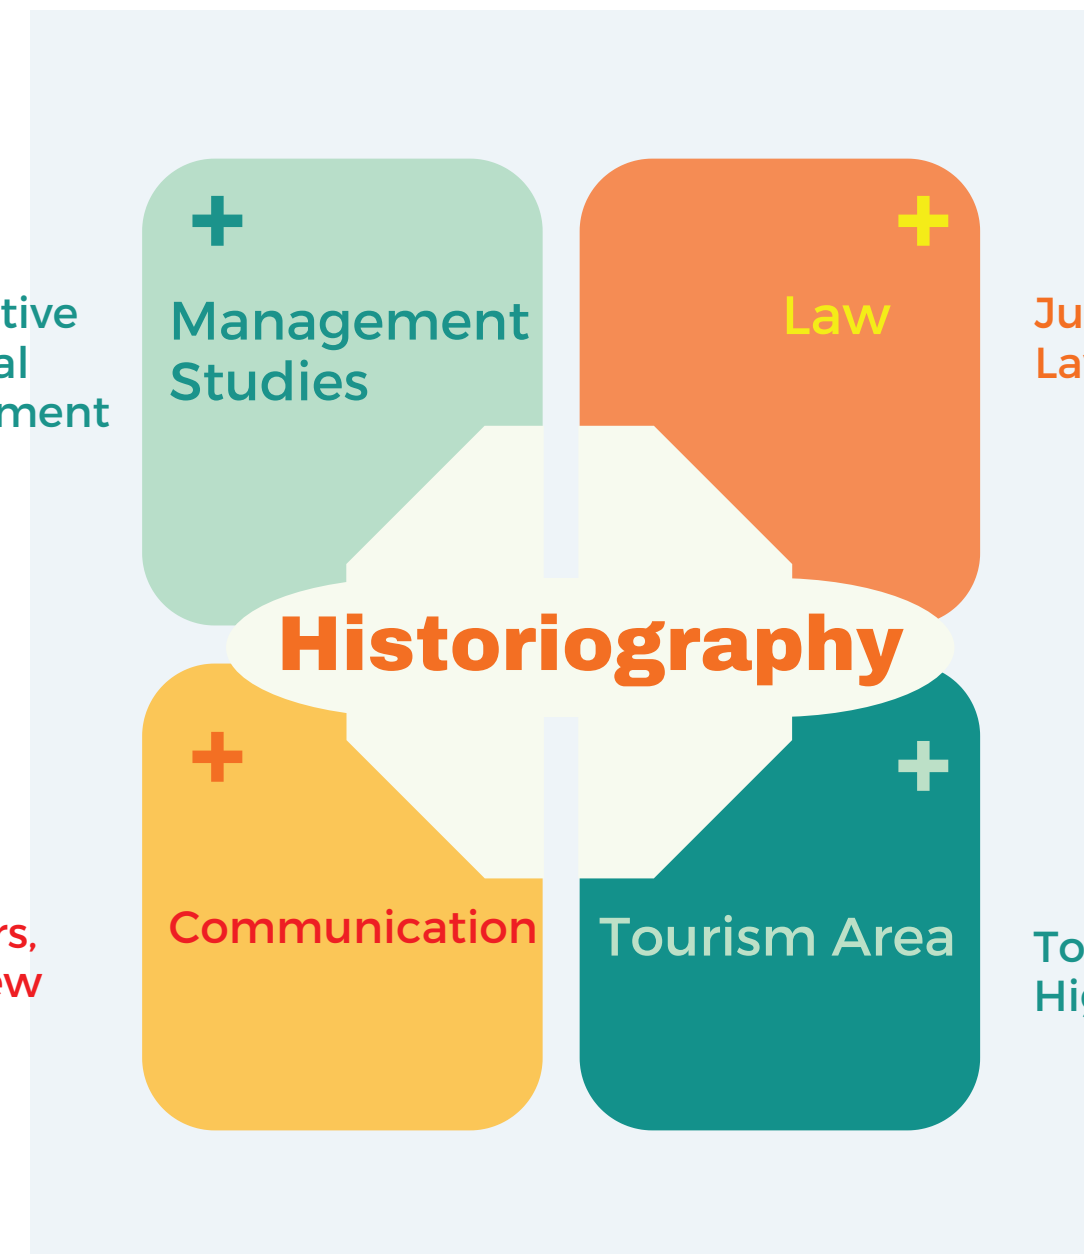

has three major laboratories

- combining a “maker” spirit with historical and cultural creativity.
- It also pioneers the Historical Board Game Laboratory.
- Historical New Media Creation Laboratory and the Oral History and Local Chronicles Research Laboratory.

Cultural and Creative Industries, Cultural Heritage Management

Journalists, Editors, Documentary Crew

Judicial Specialists, Lawyers

Tour Leaders, Guides, High-level Guided Tours

Starting from the 113th academic year, every new student enrolled in the History Department will be granted a scholarship of NT $50,000.

This scholarship is the best choice for students looking for a secure learning experience.

There is also the Wu Huinian Aid Scholarship, which provides 20,000 NT dollars per semester starting from the second academic year, totaling 140,000 NT dollars over four years.

The Wu Huinian Aid Scholarship is only available to economically and culturally disadvantaged students.

Additionally, there are other scholarships such as the Huakang Scholarship and Outstanding Learning Aid Scholarship, offering various forms of financial assistance."

Contact us :

Tel: 886-2-2861-0511 ex. 21605

E-mail : craahs@dep.pccu.edu.tw

